The completion, suspension or termination of the Agreement shall not affect the continuing operation of this condition.

9. Proper Law and Arbitration

The construction, validity and performance of the Agreement shall be governed by English Law. All disputes arising out of or in connection with the Agreement shall be referred to and settled by a single arbitrator, to be nominated by agreement. If no such agreement is reached within fourteen (14) days after a written request, then the arbitrator shall be appointed by the president for the time being of the institute of Arbitrators at the request of the person first applying in writing to him. The provisions of the Arbitration Acts and any statutory modifications or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force shall apply. The arbitration shall be conducted in London and in the English language. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding and the arbitrator shall be entitled to make any such order as to the costs of and incidental to the reference to arbitration as he may consider just.

10. Retention of Title

The risk in the goods shall pass from the seller to the buyer upon delivery of such goods to the buyer. However, notwithstanding delivery and the passing of risk in the goods, title and property in the goods, including full legal and beneficial ownership, shall not pass to the buyer until the seller has received in cash, or cleared funds payment in full, for all goods delivered to the buyer under this and all other contracts between the seller and the buyer for which payment of the full price of the goods thereunder has not been paid. Payment of the full price of the goods shall include the amount of any interest or other sum payable under the terms of this and all other contracts between the seller and the buyer under which the goods were delivered.

11. Buyer's Supply

All drawings, designs, specifications and other information together with such goods, services assistance as may be agreed to be provided by the Buyer in connection with the Agreement shall be furnished to The Company in such forms and by such dates as will enable The Company to perform its obligations under the Agreement and in default thereof (with prejudice to any other rights accruing to The Company) the time for performance of The Company's obligations shall be extended accordingly.

12. Force Majeure

If either party is prevented, hindered or delayed from in performing any of its obligations of the Agreement by reason of Act of God, fire, flood, accident, explosion, breakdown or failure of plant or machinery, war, riot, civil disturbance, strike, labour dispute, acts, orders or regulations of Government, failure (whether partial or total) or of shortage in any of The Company's or its suppliers' existing or contemplating sources of material (including parts and components) or labour or transport (whether or not such failure or shortage be existing or apprehended by The Company), or failure of any supplier or subcontractor of The Company to perform any contract with The Company, or by reason of any cause (whether or not of the same nature as the foregoing) beyond its control, it shall be under no liability to the other in respect of such obligation but the time for performing the same shall be extended until the operation of the causes preventing, hindering or delaying such performance has ceased.

12. General Data Protection Regulations 2018

The Company may share data with the Buyer in respect of its employees, including but not limited to names and contact details including email addresses, necessary for the purposes of legitimate interests pursued by the Company where that necessity has not been overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of the employees concerned. The data will be shared for a period of time until the Agreement has been fulfilled.

The Buyer may use this data only under the written instructions of the Company (unless required by law to act without such instructions). The Buyer must ensure that people processing the data are subject to a duty of confidence. The Buyer must take appropriate measures to ensure the security of processing. The Buyer must only engage a sub-processor with the prior consent of the Company and a written contract. The Buyer must assist the Company in providing subject access and allowing data subjects to exercise their rights under the General Data Protection Regulations. The Buyer must assist the Company in meeting its General Data Protection Regulations obligations in relation to the security of processing, the notification of personal data breaches and data protection impact assessments. The Buyer must delete or return all personal data to the Company as requested at the end of the duration of the Agreement. The Buyer must submit to audits and inspections, provide the Company with whatever information it needs to ensure that they are both meeting their General Data Protection Regulations Article 28 obligations, and tell the Company immediately if it is asked to do something infringing the General Data Protection Regulations or other data protection law of the EU or a member state. Nothing within these terms and conditions relieves the Buyer of its own direct responsibilities and liabilities under the General Data Protection Regulations.

13. Termination

The company shall be entitled (without prejudice to its other right) either (a) to terminate wholly or in part the Agreement or any or every other contract with Buyer, or (b) to suspend any further deliveries under the Agreement or any or every such contract, in any of the following events:
